Director's Note

This is it, the last show for while at Saint Joseph's College. I hope that in whatever incarnation the College continues, there will be a place for theatre in it. I have thoroughly enjoyed the 30 plus years I have been directing at the College and I hope that you all have fond memories as well. The Columbian Players has been an active part of the arts scene in Jasper County since 1893 and an active part of my life and career as well. I will miss the activity, the auditions, the rehearsals and the amazing things that the talented students can do when they decide that they can do them. To all of the former Players who were onstage and off and who were here for Fr. Larry Heiman, Dr. Ralph Cappuccilli, Willard Walsh, and Br. Jim Mingerey, "Break a leg". For all of those who made my life so fulfilling and interesting, thank you. It's been a great run. One last thing to remember: "Well.....it's a show."
